About Feed My Starving Children (FMSC)

Feed My Starving Children is a Christian nonprofit hunger relief organization, founded in 1987. The food mixture was formulated by Minnesota food scientists to address the needs of children suffering from malnourishment. Volunteers package 100% of the food. Christian and humanitarian relief organizations partner with FMSC to deliver the food to children around the world.

Food: Manna Pack Rice

In 2011, more than 565,000 volunteers joined Feed My Starving Children to package over 133 million meals for children around the world. Each MannaPack Rice meal provides key nutrients a starving child needs to survive and thrive.

INGREDIENTS

- Rice The most widely accepted grain around the world.
- Extruded Soy Nuggets Maximum protein at a low cost.
- 20 Vitamins and Minerals (with vegetarian chicken flavor) Nutrition and flavor.
- Dehydrated Vegetables Nutrition and flavor.

PREPARATIONS

Just cook with boiling water.

Volunteers

Volunteers hand-pack these life-saving meals. More than half of FMSC volunteers are under the age of 18. Registration for volunteer shifts is online at fmsc.org

WHAT THEY DO

- Measure ingredients
- Pack food
- Prepare boxes for shipment

Food Distribution Partners

Children in nearly 70 countries receive FMSC food. Worldwide Christian and humanitarian relief organizations partner with FMSC and distribute MannaPack Rice to children in various community settings: orphanages, schools, clinics, refugee camps, nutrition programs, and more.

Cost

Each meal costs only 22¢ to produce

Donations

Financial contributions allow FMSC to purchase ingredients. 93% of total donations to FMSC goes directly to the feeding program. Each meal costs 22¢ to produce, so donations of all amounts go a long way in the fight against world hunger.
