Migration with Dignity

We will observe Migration with Dignity Sunday TODAY at both services. This special day calls us to reflect on the universal right of movement, equality, security, and access to essential services—values that echo the teachings of Jesus and our baptismal promise to respect the dignity of every human being. Let's stand in faith and solidarity, embracing a world where compassion and justice guide our hearts.

A table will be available during Coffee Hour for those who want to discuss "Dignity." What does it mean? How do we treat strangers with dignity? How about a known criminal? What does our Baptismal Covenant say? All are welcome!

Pilgrim's Mass (brief worship service)

Beginning Tuesday, March 4th, at 8 AM at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, 310 Elizabeth St. Maumee, 419-893-3381, and continuing March 11, 18, 25, and on and on. We've looked at the sun and the moon; maybe it's time to look up again. Come as you are; come as you hope to be. Open to all, especially those on the journey.

Ash Wednesday, March 5th

There will be 12 noon and 7 PM services. The Lenten series will be held every Wednesday in Lent beginning March 12. We start with a parish potluck at 6 PM followed by an exploration of "Trauma Informed Ministry."

TransPren(†)s Toledo

Monroe Street Methodist Church is sponsoring a monthly gathering for conversation, information, and support for parents, grandparents, caregivers, and other allies of transgender and all LGBTQ+ youth; youth are welcome, too! More information can be found on our website or by contacting Lynne Hamer at 419-283-8288 or lmhamer2000@gmail.com.

Gun Violence Prevention Forum 2025

In its sixth year, the Gun Violence Prevention Forum will welcome 150+ dedicated leaders in person in New York City and thousands more to join virtually on February 27th. Northwell Health hosts this annual convening of changemakers to mobilize the collective efforts of leading executives, clinicians, researchers, and policymakers around gun violence as a public health emergency.
