Stewardship Campaign

This week, we invite you to read Mark Christophono's heartfelt testimony about how St. Paul's became a place of healing, acceptance, and true spiritual family. His story reminds us of the powerful ways our community supports one another in times of need. As we continue our Stewardship Campaign, we encourage you to give generously to ensure this loving ministry remains strong for all who walk through our doors.

Portrait donations

We are continuing to receive at-will donations for the portraits of Paul and the Rev. Chris Luedde, honoring their faithful years of ministry. Thank you for supporting this meaningful tribute as we celebrate Paul's 28 years of dedicated leadership.

Angel Tree

It's time to wrap the gifts with the tag recipient's name and turn them into the Guild Room at church between December 10-14. Gifts will be picked up on December 20th by the recipients. Please contact Kathy Greene (765-977-6863) if you have questions.

Enjoy Christmas organ and piano music from St. Paul's at home!

Jane Weber and Jeffrey Bunke have created a music video for you, celebrating the season with organ and piano solos and duets that set the holiday mood. Beginning mid week and throughout the Christmas season, you will be able to visit the church website and locate this year's Christmas video. Just click on it while you are decorating, making a meal, wrapping presents, hosting holiday visitors, or just seeking some holiday inspiration, and enjoy.

Christian Education Opportunities:

Bible Study: On break for Advent due to Soup Suppers and Holden Evening Prayer Dec 17.

Sunday School:

Godly Play (Age 3 - 4th grade): Meets after Communion for about 20 minutes of storytelling and wondering questions.
