Meal Train for Molly Gillespie, Teacher

This week we learned that our dear Raccoon teacher, Molly Gillespie, has been diagnosed with osteosarcoma and will undergo surgery on Tuesday followed by chemotherapy, so she will not return this school year as she focuses on recovery. We kindly ask you to keep Molly, her husband Kris, and their four boys in your prayers. We are organizing a care package for her recovery and will be collecting contributions throughout next week, especially items to help keep her mind engaged. We are also setting up a meal train starting after spring break, with meals collected on Mondays and Wednesdays, and we appreciate your continued love and support for Mrs. G. More information at the website.
